

Your Name: _____

Your House Color: _____

WEEK THREE: ROMANTIC ERA WEEK

I'M WORTH 5 POINTS!

Fill in the crossword using the clues below!

DOWN:

- 1. Another Russian composer, Rimsky-Korsakov, wrote a piece for orchestra about _____, the woman who tells the stories in 1,001 Arabian Nights!
- 3. Clara Wieck _____ already was an accomplished pianist before she married her composer husband, Robert.
- 6. Czech composer Antonin _____ wrote his famous New World Symphony during a year-long visit to the US. He even spent time in Spillville, Iowa!

ACROSS:

- 2. Russian composer Pyotr Ilyich _____ was especially famous for writing ballet music, like Swan Lake and The Nutcracker.
- 4. French composer Hector _____ loved to explore what kinds of different sounds specific orchestra instruments make. His famous Symphonie Fantastique shows how you can use different instruments to make the music tell a story!
- 5. Composer Ludwig van _____ lost his hearing in the middle of his career and wrote his famous Ninth Symphony without being able to hear the sounds from the orchestra.
- 7. Opera composers in the Romantic period liked to write operas about other countries. The Italian composer Giacomo Puccini wrote Madame _____ about a young woman in Japan.
- 8. Georges Bizet, a French composer, set his opera Carmen in Spain and included a famous song about a _____, a Spanish bullfighter.
- 9. Johannes _____ studied music composition with Robert Schumann and was a good friend to Clara Schumann after Robert got sick and had to live away from home.

EXTRA CREDIT! (WORTH 3 POINTS)

Extra Credit: Look up and listen to one of Clara Schumann's compositions:

What did you listen to? _____

What did you hear/learn? _____
